Teacher of Design & Technology (Suitable for NQT)

Competitive Salary

Required for September 2020

ACCOMMODATION AVAILABLE
POSSIBLE TLR
OUTSTANDING NQT PROGRAMME

This is an exciting opportunity to teach KS3, GCSE and A Level Design & Technology at one of the most successful schools in England. The Technology Department at Gordon's places creativity, student autonomy and authentic design principles at its heart.

We seek an enthusiastic graduate. High energy levels and good inter-personal skills will be essential. There are a potential TLR opportunities for a suitably experienced colleague. The position is also suitable for a NQT.

Set in a beautiful 45-acre Surrey site, the School enjoys excellent facilities and an aspirational learning environment. Recognised by HM Chief Inspector of Schools as one of England's finest non-selective schools, Gordon's has circa 840 students including 240 residential boarders and a thriving sixth form. In 2019, the percentage of students achieving five or more GCSE grades 9-5, including English and mathematics, was 88%. The A*-C pass rate at A-Level was 93%, with 73% of the grades A* to B. These results rank Gordon's amongst the top non-selective schools in England for progress and attainment.

Massively over-subscribed, Gordon's size ensures that every pupil is well known and nurtured as an individual. The School has a very strong emphasis on academic standards, self-discipline and traditional values and aims to be much more than just outstanding examination results, providing abundant opportunities outside the classroom and exceptional pastoral care.
