

GORDON'S SCHOOL

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Gordon's School has fully qualified coaching staff which serve all age groups. Students take part in a number of plays, musicals, concerts, trips and competitions.

Creative Arts Scholarships are offered to students demonstrating excellence and potential in their nominated field. Students follow a carefully balanced programme, and this is reflected in the scholarship process. In addition to Creative Art Assessments, we also monitor students' creative competency. Music candidates are expected to have at least a Grade 7 in their chosen specialism.

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

ADAM STANWORTH - DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Adam Stanworth studied music at Reading University, undertook a master's degree in composition and musical analysis at Cardiff University, and has the ABRSM licentiate diploma in piano performance. Over a teaching career spanning nearly 30 years, he has been a director of music since 2008, including since 2020 at Gordon's School. As a musician, he has a particular interest in classical music and jazz and has experience of leading and conducting many different instrumental groups from jazz bands through to orchestras. He is an accomplished piano accompanist and enjoys playing in rock/pop groups as a keyboardist. As a singer, Adam was once a member of the London Bach Choir and has always enjoyed choral singing and directing choral groups. He has also had extensive experience as MD on dozens of different musical theatre productions in schools. He enjoys working with the scholars and helping them to challenge themselves to be even better musicians.

KRISTEN BELL – SINGING COACH

Originally trained as a classical singer, Kristen has performed professionally in New York City and across the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree in Vocal Performance and a master's degree in music psychology. She has also taught in both New York and England for many years. Kristen is passionate about music in all its forms and enjoy exploring a wide variety of styles, from musical theatre and classical to rock, pop, and jazz.

SUSIE DALRYMPLE - HEAD OF STRINGS AND VIOLIN/VIOLA/PIANO TEACHER

Mrs D studied piano and violin at both The Royal College of Music and The Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester. She performs professionally in orchestras and string quartets for concerts, shows and charity events.

In her role as teacher and Head of Strings at Gordon's, Mrs D is dedicated to her students from beginner to advanced level. She enthusiastically encourages her students to be involved in music trips, workshops, mentoring programmes, string ensembles and national competitions.

Mrs D guides and supports each student throughout their musical journey at Gordon's and is passionate about helping scholars develop their potential to become the best musician they can be.
