There will not be a farrier or vet at this competition

Additional Rules and Conditions of Entry

- All riders must be aged 7-18 years and in full time education. The name of their school or college must be on the entry form
- All riders must have their own insurance that covers both horse and rider to compete at this event
- All horse vaccinations must be up to date
- Classes will be run under British Showjumping rules, which can be found here <http://www.britishshowjumping.co.uk/files/MH%2016%202017.pdf> However, the emphasis of the event is that all who compete have a positive experience and all steps possible will be taken to ensure this, as such three refusals will be allowed before elimination.
- Single-phase classes, with the second half of the courses timed.
- Entries will not be refunded unless a doctor/vet certificate is provided within 7 days of the event
- If any horse/pony has been in contact with strangles or any infectious diseases it must not attend the competition
- No horse can compete more than once in each class, even with a different rider
- Horses/Ponies must not be tied up outside lorries/trailers and left unattended
- Absolutely no hay or droppings to be left when leaving Parwood

- The Show Organiser reserves the right to cancel/amend or change any competition and event structure.
- The participating school will be held liable for all such payments regardless of whether or not the school made the payment for the original entry. There will be a standing charge of £20 for each dishonoured payment and for accounts not fully settled in accordance with the entry specifications. All costs incurred by the Show Organiser in recovery of outstanding sums will be payable, including legal fees, and interest will be payable daily at 8% over the then current Barclays base rate.
- The judges' decision is final and any objection to a result or otherwise, or complaint against another competitor, must be formally made in writing to the Show Secretary together with an objection fee of £30 which will be refunded only if the objection is upheld.
- All warming up and exercise must be carried out only in the designated areas provided; only combinations entered in the current class will be allowed to use these areas. Standing is not allowed in the collecting rings and riders must ride in single file in the direction instructed on the day. One adult helper per combination is allowed in the jumping warm up area at the practice jumps only, and they must be appropriately dressed and competent. No bags, rugs etc. to be set down anywhere in the warming up areas. Riders must announce their approach to a jump in the warm-up arena. No more than 10 riders in the warm-up arena at any one time. Warm-up jumps should be jumped red on the right hand side.
- Any prizes awarded must be collected at the show and cannot be carried forward or distributed subsequently

If you do not wish to have photos published on social media or in other forms of media please mention this on your entry form.

Gordon's School Equestrian Team's Code of Conduct

RESPECT

Cooperate fully with others involved in the sport such as, but not exclusive of, other team members, officials, secretaries, judges.

EQUALITY

Respect the rights, dignity and worth of EVERY participant, official and others involved in events and training. Question inappropriate behaviour and language made by others. Treat everyone equally and fairly.

INSPIRATION

Be a role model and lead by example. Refrain from swearing and abusive language and irresponsible behaviour including behaviour that is dangerous to yourself or others. Be well-mannered and sensible at all times.

DETERMINATION

Things will not always go to plan, especially where horses are involved. However, resilience, determination to battle through and do your best is imperative. Every time that you get on your horse, it adds to your experience and that matters.

EXCELLENCE

Consistently promote positive aspects of the sport such as fair play and never condone rule violations. Always encourage everyone on the team to do the best they can. Always look presentable and wear school-specific items, as requested by the team manager, when representing the school

FRIENDSHIP

Encourage everyone to work together to achieve their best when competing and support each other throughout.

Riders and parents understand that riding at any standard has inherent risk and that all horses may react unpredictably on occasions.

Riders may fall off and could be injured. Riders accept that risk.

Riders understand there is a risk of injury to their horse/pony, especially when competing and will ensure adequate insurance is in place.

Riders understand that instructions are given for their safety and agree to follow instructions given to them by a team manager, trainer, officials and other relevant staff and adults.

By completing an entry form you hereby agree to the rules and conditions above.

Any concerns or queries please contact the Show Organiser: smaslen@gordons.school or call on 01276 859715 / 07721 205148
